People I have worked with

Senior Media Designer, Cengage

4.14 - present, I am a member of small team providing engaging media for Cengage and our online learning courses, including commercial studio quality animation, illustration, and design. In addition to being actively involved on projects as an animator and artist, I have led the production of in-house projects, served as an art director for external vendors and mentored junior artists.

I work across cultural and technical barriers to build a culture of storytelling & design excellence within Cengage.
